HATCH HOUSE

I JUST ONLY DISCOVERED THE MAGIC THAT IS HATCH HOUSE. CAPE COD MODERN TRUST HAS TAKEN ON THE AMAZING TASK OF RESTORING A GROUP OF THE OUTER CAPE'S EXCEPTIONAL MODERN ARCHITECTURE AND RELAUNCHING THE SPACES AS PLATFORMS FOR NEW CREATIVE WORK & STAYS. NEEDLESS TO SAY I EMAILED AS QUICKLY AS I COULD IN HOPES OF GETTING THE CHANCE ONE DAY TO STAY IN THIS INSANELY INSPIRING SPACE. I CAN ONLY IMAGINE THE ART IT WOULD INSPIRE!

ABOUT HATCH HOUSE --

THE EXPERIMENTAL HATCH HOUSE WAS DESIGNED BY JACK HALL IN 1960 FOR ROBERT HATCH, AN EDITOR OF THE NATION AND HIS WIFE RUTH, A PAINTER. IT'S HARD TO DESCRIBE THE SETTING OF THE HATCH HOUSE, WITH IT'S PANORAMIC VIEW OF THE BAY, PERCHED ON THE EDGE OF A KETTLE HOLE, WITH A VERNAL POOL BELOW, AND ITS UNTRAMMELED WEST-FACING HILLSIDE WHICH TAKES IN THE SUNSET OVER THE WATER.

LIFE

WE JUST GOT BACK FROM THE LAND OF ENCHANTMENT AND I AM FEELING FULL OF CREATIVE ENERGY! I HAVE A LIST SO LONG WE'LL SEE IF I CAN GET THROUGH IT ALL BY THE END OF THE YEAR.

A DAY IN GEORGIA O'KEEFFE'S WORLD

There really aren't many words to describe my experience, it might be akin to a spiritual awaking. Like being seen truly and fully for the first time.

When I walked into her garden it was like a homecoming and with each step further into her space I felt her creative energy had permeated the adobe walls. It was like she had just popped into town for some groceries and would be back at any moment. The air was still alive with her unfinished works hanging there for anyone open and willing to breath them in, to channel them for your own. I believe she would of wanted that, "but only take what you need," she would of said. Don't be greedy. It's hard not to be greedy in a space as magical as hers. The very mesas that she painted over and over again beckon you. They hold her secrets. A collector of nature and chairs like me. Rocks were more precious then diamonds.

She told her husband she wouldn't be returning to New York because what New Mexico offered no man ever could. When we rode on horseback through Ghost Ranch I could feel that in my bones, the deep pull of a place ancient and untamed. A place that can belong to no one but Georgia will belong to it for eternity.
